WALK IN THE NEWNESS OF LIFE

40TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

OF

THE CLASS OF 1960

OUR LADY OF THE ANGELS ACADEMY

ENFIELD, CONNECTICUT

Our Lady of the Angels Convent
Enfield, Connecticut

July 30, 2000

Entrance Song: Yahweh

Refrain:

Yahweh is the God of my salvation:

I trust in Him and have no fear.

I sing of the joy which His love gives to me, and I draw deeply from the springs of His great kindness.

1. Open our eyes to the wonder of this moment,
the beginning of another day. Refrain
2. Be with us, Lord, as we break through with each other, to find the truth and beauty of each friend.
Refrain
3. When evening comes and our day of toil is over
Give us rest, O Lord, in the joy of many friends.
Refrain
4. Take us beyond the vision of this day to the deep and wide ways of your infinite love and life. Refrain

First Reading: 2 Kings 4:42-44

Responsorial Psalm:

The hand of the Lord feeds us;
He answers all our needs.

Second Reading: Ephesians 4:1-6

Gospel Verse:

Alleluia! A great prophet has risen in our midst. God has visited his people.

Gospel: John 6:1-15

Homily:

Prayer of the Faithful:

Offertory Song: Ubi Caritas

Ubi caritas et amor, Ubi caritas Deus ibi est.

Communion Song: Eat This Bread

Eat this bread, drink this cup,
come to me and never be hungry.
Eat this bread, drink this cup,
trust in me and you will not thirst.

Recessional Song: Lift Up Your Hearts

Refrain:

Lift up your hearts to the Lord,
Praise God's gracious mercy!
Sing out your joy to the Lord,
Whose love is enduring.

1. Shout with joy to the Lord, all the earth!
Praise the name above all names!
Say to God, "How wondrous your works,
how glorious your name." Refrain

2. Let the earth worship, singing your praise.
Praise the glory of your name!
Come and see the deeds of the Lord;
bless God's holy name. Refrain

Dedication

Here it is, Mother: our yearbook.

It is ours, because so much of us has gone into it-

Our work is there, and our laughter, and our love.

And now,

Because you are our ideal, our model of perfection,

Because you are our guide, the teacher of Christ Himself,

Because you are our Mother: our life, our sweetness and our hope-

We dedicate

THE 1960 ANGELICAN

to you.

Take it, Mother,

For now it is yours.

OUR LIFE . . . OUR MOTHER

We stand so trustingly on life's threshold —
See — the captive daylight bursts forth,
the brilliant sun is warm,
life is so beautiful . . .
To be alive and in our youth!

Mother, we are so fragile;
the flame of our idealism flickers and falters —
our hearts are restless and searching — Give us the wisdom to seek truth in life's school that our hearts may beat in perfect rhythm with Thine.

And like the rise and fall of the sea and the unswerving path of the sun in the skies —
Our hearts be purified, in time, of their hardness,
of their meaninglessness,
of their death.

Then we will approach the cool dusk as Thy children, eagerly awaiting the rest and peace of a cradle's warmth and a mother's touch.

Through RELIGION we seek knowledge of our God.

Patricia Jones, Victaria Walmus, Patricia Iagrossa, Cecilia Lukasik, and Ellen Rousseau delve into the study of Church History aided by faith and reason, the guides to our goal, in Religion III class.

Sister Mary Magdalen, C.S.S.F.

Members of the Senior Class, Phyllis Quagliaroli, Patricia Thulen, Mary Jo Fish, Joan Wiernasz, and Janice Gaudette plan a bulletin board in correlation with Vocation Month.

Claire Tongue, Elizabeth Shanahan, and Lorraine Tabaka explore the customs and rituals of the Advent Season.

Sister Mary Doloria, C.S.S.F.

ENGLISH gives us the legacy of the minds of great men.

Research, research, research is the cry of these English II students: (standing) Paula Caalen, Claire Tangué, Sylvia Skarbek, Jacqueline Kazanawski, Patricia Buckley, (seated) Kathryn Gabriel, Susan Mead, Collette Pairier and Luba Stobierski, as they work in the library.

Freshmen Kathleen Laing and Jaanne Maleski admire our new statue depicting the characters in "The Merchant of Venice".

English III students utilize the school library's facilities in compiling information for their term papers. They are Rosemarie Sponzo, Jacqueline Messier, Carole Steward, Jeanne Krachalis, and Maryonne Mociolek.

Seriously considering a chart of English literature are Seniors Paula Bania, Frances Bonczar, Theresa Carroll, Patricia Czub, Jane Crombie, and Anna Rutkowski.

Freshmen listening to a recording of "The Rime of the Ancient Mariner" in English class are: (standing) Sheila Handley, (seated) Betty-Ja Ulavich, Loretta Cyrankowski, Kathleen Stroiney, Karen Javorski, Linda Carrigan, Joan Mazur, Evelyn Yedziniak, Suzanne Lavaie, and Gloria Dymek.

Patricia Laing and Patricia Patter gaze intently as Carole Strang explains the structure of the heart.

The universe reveals its wonders to us

Billie Ann Pelkey, Joan Swierzb, Rita Peraro and Mary Colgan watch with cheerful interest as Sister Leania demonstrates the ammania fountain.

Jane Zukawsky, Lorraine Maslanka, Eleanor LaCraix, Gail Adamawicz and Louise Luczai are busily putting their slide rules to use in Physics class.

Sister Mary Leonia, C.S.S.F.

Classical culture yields its treasures through our study of LATIN,...

"What's new?" Curious Juniors Rosaleen Mozur, Donna Czapiga, Mory Ellen Lafand, Carale Rzasa and Cotherine Della Rocca leaf through Latin booklets on display.

Saphamores beginning to realize the universality of Latin are Kathleen Kowal, Elaine Paradis, Lorraine Tabaka, Irene Gospadarek, Judith Butler, Barbara Santanella and Margaret Cayne.

Freshmen Mary Jankowski, Rita Dowdy, Eileen Renna, Mary Ann Markowski, Nancy Gullatt, Ann Crowley, Nancy Pelkey, and Carolyn Grace pose happily as they find that Latin really isn't so difficult.

We are so small and life looms so trem
See, the valley ahead is dark,
a lone ray shines before our next step,
yet time relentlessly beckons us follow,
To awake in such a promising world!

Mother, we are eager to chart this way;
its vastness frightens us —
our smallness overwhelms us — Give us your guidance to find the way that our hearts, being made certain, may find their True End.

And like the steady beat of the waves upon the shore and the stately march of the seasons
Our hearts will ever steadfastly cling to you in pulsing life,

in final death.

For we love you. Please stay with us.
